Beginners' Astrology – AstroFantasy

Exercise

One person suggests a combination of Planet, Sign and House and invites the other/s to suggest an imaginative example. Perhaps this:

Me: Neptune Libra 9th

You: "A beautiful foreign mystic"

1st Friend: "The illusion of justice as a philosophy"

2nd Friend: "Unrealisable dreams of relationship"

Teaching

This is a very neat and quick way to learn and express a first-level knowledge of astrology. Not only does it call upon awareness of planets, signs and houses, it also demands that we employ, and thus develop our intuition. You can either

- a) agree to accept all answers unchallenged to promote confidence, or
- b) discuss the reasons and ask for explanation when there is doubt or a wish to correct
